- PV Sharma (Secretary, Cultural Society of Sunshine ^{Public} School)

2 December, 2023 - A commendable step was taken by the members of our cultural society of the school to organise a literacy camp to invite members of the local school and several NGOs to be the part of it.

The camp started around 8 AM. It was inaugurated by the district literary chairperson, Dr. Nitin Rastogi. The total number of volunteers registered was 450. There were six experienced trainers who systematically explained with tools how the literacy program is to be introduced in different pockets to reach its target annually. Classes were held in six different spots. The camp lasted for five hours with a snack break for half an hour.

The volunteers expressed their gratitude for getting the opportunity of learning more than they expected. The camp came to an end with the vote of thanks from the president of the host club.
